AT THE THEATERS

Today and Monday will see the opening of two more shows, and if the promises that have been made are at all fulfilled, they will form welcome additions to Honolulu theatrical world. Monday, the circus will begin its season, while tonight will witness the opening performance at the Bijou. Apart from the decided novelty of a circus, patrons are promised that something good will be submitted, and judging by the press notices that have been received, the audiences will not be disappointed. The Bijou, too, should receive a large share of patronage, for the program that is to be presented has the merit of being a well varied one, and Manager Kubey's judgment should be sufficient to warrant that the artists will be good. All the other houses have excellent programs, and Honolulu will have a record number of houses to choose from in deciding on a form of entertainment. All tastes are being catered to, as the shows range from drama and farce, down to straight picture shows, with a circus in a class by itself.

BIJOU OPENS TONIGHT.

The Bijou Theater has been completed, and every thing is now ready for the opening tonight. The interior presents an excellent appearance, and the patrons of this house should enjoy the excellent programs that are to be submitted to them, with that degree of comfort that is lacking in even bigger cities than Honolulu. True to promise the management has provided a playhouse both spacious and comfortable, for on every hand there is evidence of thoughtfulness. It now remains for the artists to complete the promise given on their behalf, and that they will do that, there is very little doubt.

The opening tonight should be a successful one, and no doubt a large crowd will be present. Stage manager and musical director Hughes has everything in readiness. All the performers and all the musicians are ready and no doubt a big house will greet each performance. The Bijou will be more of a vaudeville show than any other house in Honolulu, a fact that will almost assuredly be warmly appreciated by a great majority of theater goers. Every turn to be submitted is said to be a good one, and there is no reason to think that Manager Kubey has made any mistake after his long experience at the stage business. A feature of the program will be the Kolb and Dill farce entitled "The Speculators," which should make a hit with the audience. The turns by Dunn and Branton, Gladys Middleton and Walter Perry will lend both variety and strength to the bill, while the motion pictures will be up-to-date.

The prices of admission are ten and fifteen cents, and it is understood that the management will not raise the prices when the house is crowded. Best wishes for success are tendered to the promoters.

WILLS AND HASSAN.

Wills and Hassan will tonight conclude their highly successful season at the Park Theater, and will leave by the C. A. S. S. Moana on Wednesday next for Vancouver en route for New York. By the same boat a team of comedy acrobats is coming to the Park management, and patrons of this popular playhouse are promised something good. The new people are leaders in their line in Australia, and they are sure to make an American reputation during their stay in Honolulu, that will be enhanced as they work their way across the United States. They will present something almost, if not entirely new to Honolulu during their short stay here. Their turn is certainly an excellent one, and will surely be warmly appreciated.

THE ATTRACTIVE NOVELTY.

The Musical Milers are still proving as attractive as ever at the Novelty, and the changes that they have submitted have been successful. Their instrument playing, singing and dancing are just as much appreciated as they were when they first opened, and their popularity has grown each week of their stay. Wise and Milton still occupy a prominent part in the bill, and they are just as amusing as ever. The Novelty audiences seem never to tire of this evergreen couple, who always have something fresh to say and do. George W. Stanley has some new songs that he renders in a delightful manner. The usual matinee will be held today.

MASCOTTES PLEASE.

The "Port Townsend Daily Leader" endorsed the opinion expressed regarding the clever Mascottes who appeared at the Novelty Theater in October last, with great success. The Mascottes were appearing at the Rose on November 17, and regarding their performance the "Leader" said: The top liners on the bill are the Australian Mascottes, who present a gymnastic song and dance turn differing from anything ever seen here. The young women, both comely of face and figure, do a combination of singing and lightfoot dancing contortion that is not only marvelous, but pleasing to look upon. One portion of the act is certainly "devilish" and must be seen to be appreciated. The young women have just arrived from a long and successful season in Australia, their home country, and made their initial appearance in America last evening, receiving a flattering and well-deserved reception.

COFFEE GRINDER.

J. M. Levy & Co., the King street grocers, have installed in their place of business a Hobart coffee grinder—something entirely new here. It runs by electric power and turns out rapidly any grade of ground coffee from the coarsest down to powder, and at the same time removes all trash. The machine is a pretty thing, making a striking ornament as well as being useful. The grinder was set to work yesterday for the first time.

HONOLULU TRANSFERS.

Chief Engineer Hopkins of the coast survey service steamer Explorer, in service about Honolulu, is to be transferred to the United States light-house service, and Chief Engineer Herbert W. Peerce, now on the steamer Hydrographer, has received orders to go to Honolulu to relieve him. —Washington Star, November 13.
